

On Parker Pond, Mount Vernon, Maine

Presents

In Concert: The Bearnstow Dancers

August 30, 2013 at 7:30pm

Vienna Union Hall

Bearnstow interns perform works developed from the summer dance workshops, taught by Robin Gilmore, Ruth Grauert, K.J. Holmes, Peter Kyle, Véronique MacKenzie, Lynn Needle, Claire Porter, and Dorothy Vislocky.

Bearnstow and its programs are under the direction of Ruth E. Grauert.

Bearnstow thanks the Union Hall Association for providing this performance space.

From left: Adam Kerbel, Heriberto Mendoza, Nicole Garlando, Cristina Woehlert, and Karina Culloton

Karina Culloton is studying dance at St. Olaf College and is a member of the college's dance company. She also works as a dance technician and teaches classes on campus and in the community.

Nicole Garlando lives in Columbus, Ohio, where she co-operates an independent dance and arts space. Here she teaches community classes and develops new works with local professionals.

Adam Kerbel, a recent graduate of Marymount Manhattan College, is an actor and dance improviser who develops original dance-theatre performances. He lives in Philadelphia.

Heriberto Mendoza, from Tecoman, Mexico, recently graduated from the University of Colima. Upon his return to Mexico he will be working as an independent artist in Mexico City.

Cristina Woehlert, originally from Michigan, is currently studying dance at the University of Colima, Mexico. She is also a member of the dance company Ensamble, Danza Escénica.

Bearnstow, 84 Bearnstow Road, Mt. Vernon, ME 04352
207-293-2280 ~ www.bearnstow.org