Danzar de Imaginario

(Dancing Widely)

“What we observe is not nature itself, but nature exposed to our method of questioning.”

— Werner Heisenberg

Performed by Adriana León, Alejandro Vera, and the Artist Residents at Bearnstow

Union Hall, Vienna, Maine

Saturday, August 13, 2016, 7:30 p.m.

Danzar de Imaginario was created in September 2010 as part of the Colima Dance Festival for the 70th Anniversary celebrations of the University of Colima. This program has been presented at the International Festival of Contemporary Dance Oc-Othic Merida Yucatan, in the Festival of Arts of the Juárez University of Durango, as well as the International Dance Festival La Laguna Walking Street in Tenerife, Canary Islands, Spain in 2013.

Adriana León Arana holds an MFA in Scenic Arts and a BFA in Dance from the University of Veracruz, México. She is the director, choreographer and dancer in Univerdanza, a contemporary dance company from the University of Colima, México, and she is a professor of Creative Experimentation and Composition at the University of Colima. Adriana has presented her choreography in the most important dance festivals of Mexico, the U.S. and Tenerife, Spain. She was a Resident Artist at Bearnstow in 2005 and presented with her husband, Alejandro Vera, a concert of her works at the Mount Vernon Community Center.

Contributions are gratefully accepted.

Bearnstow's Young Artist Residency Program dancers present a concert of works composed in the Bearnstow summer workshops.
